

WHAT'S IN A CSA SHARE?

When you buy a CSA share you are buying a share of the farm harvest. Each week you receive a collection of local farm products that are in season – usually, a box of 7–10 items a week. The amount varies a little as the growing season changes, but it's generally appropriate for 2–3 people. Here's a sample of what a CSA box might contain in each of the four seasons:

SPRING Honey, 2 pounds cooking apples, radishes, 2 pounds potatoes, hydroponic lettuce head, ramps, 1 pound rhubarb, kale.

SUMMER 4 ounces of goat cheese, beet bunch, 1 pound candy onions, basil, 2 pounds of peaches, 2 zucchini, carrot bunch, 2 pounds tomatoes, 4 ears of sweet corn, 3 sweet peppers.

FALL 2 pounds bosc pears, 2 pounds red potatoes, celeriac, 1 pound leeks, delicata squash, spinach, 1 large eggplant, broccoli, Brussels sprout greens.

WINTER Hydroponic lettuce, one half pound raw cow's milk cheese, one dozen eggs, half gallon apple cider, jar of chopped tomatoes, 2 pounds sweet potatoes, cornmeal, tomatillo salsa, 1 pound carrots, garlic.

CSA BENEFITS EVERYONE

Community Supported Agriculture is a mutually beneficial commitment between farmers and their community. Members of the CSA ensure a customer base and stable income for the farmer throughout the growing season. In return, the farmer provides CSA members with a weekly share of the best local produce available year round.

CSA SHARE OPTIONS

The 32-week Farmer's Friend Share (our longest share) combines the Harvest and Cabin Fever shares and supplies you with high-quality, local produce from early spring through fall.

It's three seasons of the best farm food our region has to offer, and our best value!

The Harvest Share runs 24 weeks, from mid-June to mid-November. This share features the full bounty of the summer growing season – sweet corn, heirloom tomatoes, peaches, melons, and much more. Biweekly options available.

The 8-week Cabin Fever Share runs from mid-April until mid-June. This option is perfect for folks who plan to be gone for the summer or who have large summer gardens of their own. You can expect lots of fresh greens, lettuces, and other non-veggie farm products like cheese & apple cider.

Our Winter Share consists of 9 bi-weekly deliveries and runs from early December until early April. Winter shares include storage produce, greenhouse greens, cheeses and our very own, Penn's Corner line of value added, private label products.
